About one hundred others were arrested at the same time I was, but only twelve beside myself were ever indicted. As fears were entertained that I might be rescued, I was taken to old Concord, where I remained in jail until court convened--in November, I think. At that time two indictments were found against me, after four days had been spent in examining witnesses, one for arson and one for burglary, both hanging offenses in those days. I was tried in East Cambridge before Judges Marcus, Morton, Shaw and True. My counsel was Samuel Wheeler and another lawyer, whose name I have forgotten. The trial lasted ten days, and during the whole time the court room was crowded to its utmost capacity by...
