One farmer in the neighbourhood of Chicoutimi has about 400 acres under cultivation, and raised this year some 4,000 bushels of grain alone--his enormous barns evidence the confidence he has in the productiveness of his land. A business is carried on in raising live-stock, and the Saguenay steamers bring a full complement of excellent cattle to the Quebec market. The great, in fact, almost the only drawback, is the want of means of communication. The cost of cartage from Chicoutimi, the head of navigation, to Lake St. John is enormous. To St. Felicien, a distance of about 100 miles (and not the most distant point, for there are settlers twenty miles further in, and will be a hundred miles still further), it costs from $1 to $i...
