Army War College, 1993 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)44375821 Subject: World politics -- 1919-1932. Excerpt: . . . power system, that old and evil order with its ugly plan. . . of alliances, of watchful jealousies, of rabid antagonisms, which Wilson perceived as the primary cause of the war. Ultimately, that war had to be fought to do away with the old order and to establish a new one, . . . the center and characteristic of the old order being that unstable thing we 44 used to call the balance of power . The new system was collective security. In its pure form, what Inis Claude calls ideal collective security, it is a system for managing power that requires the participation of every state in the world under a legally binding and codified commitment on the part of these states to respond to aggression anytime and anywhere it might occur. The scheme is collective in the fullest sense; it purports to provide security for all states by the action of all states, against all states which...
