

Satan's Canvas: Deceptive Art: 101 - An Introduction to Satan's Oldest Trick in the Book.

By Mike Lawson

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Since the dawn of creation in the garden of Eden, mankind has faced a spiritual enemy whose ultimate goal is to destroy God's creation. His name is satan, and he entered the garden of Eden through the tongue of the serpent. Since that day in the garden, the enemy of mankind has been challenging human beings with the same basic question: Hath God said? Pastor Mike takes a fresh look at the conversation that occurred between Eve and the serpent. Through prayer, study, and personal experience he reveals principles of deception that are still in use against human beings today. The human mind is satan's desired canvas. His ultimate goal is to paint a deceptive picture onto this canvas of choice. In this book you will learn how the enemy attempts to do this. More importantly, you will learn how to combat this deceptive artist by standing strongly on the Word of God. In effect, you will learn how to confidently say, God hath said!.
