Do you ever wonder what things will be like for your children or grandchildren? Are you ever fearful your (grand)children will not make it or have a difficult time making it? If you answer no to both of these questions you are lucky. If you answer no to both questions you may not be interested in what I have to say. Maybe you should be! If you have any hesitancy in answering either question you will be interested in what I say. My life and my book are about questions - questions not too many people are asking. Three years ago I published a book Why We Are Always Broke: things we need to know about the economy. Although only 3 years old, my book started 55 years ago when I was a student at the University of Notre Dame. My economics professor, Jerome J Judge, was explaining what then seemed to be a new approach to economics. I fought him every single class. You cannot spend money you don't have! You cannot create something out of...

Reviews

Most of these publication is the perfect ebook accessible. It is amongst the most awesome publication i have got read through. You wont truly feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogs are for regarding in the event you request me).

-- Prof. Edgar Kshlerin

It is easy in study safer to comprehend. It can be written in basic phrases and never confusing. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
