Excerpt from The Stolen Bride: Or a Tale of Old Watch Hill The Stolen Bride. When the night descends dark and chill, I wander over old Watch Hill, - Wander around trying to trace Some long ago forgotten place. Strange sights do I see, strange sounds hear, Aye, sounds strange to an Indian s ear Who once roamed this land at will; His spirit hovers round it still, Trying to picture the spot once more As it was in the days of yore; As when our council fires did flame Ere to this haunt the pale face came; When these waters supplied the fish With which to fill our birchen dish, And from the woods we filled the same With deer and other smaller game; Gathered our wampum from the sand Which with the seaweed strewed the strand. Twas here we smoked the pipe of peace When for a time our warfare ceased; Here wigwams, the red man s abode, Decked the land whereon he strode - Strode proudly hill and vale around The Narragansett s hunting ground. A branch of that powerful tribe Once lived here, aye, lived, loved, fought and died. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
