M. C. A. In the work undertaken by this Commission it was found that there was frequent duplication of effort and some fields of need were not touched at all. The method of investigation has been to get some one man in each state to list all agencies in that state working on Racial problems. Also to get a responsible person in every city of any importance to give a similar listing. In every case both a white and a colored man was requested to report. These men were requested to serve voluntarily and without compensation. It is but natural that some failed to send full information. The listing of agencies cannot, therefore, be exhaustive, but it is sufficiently full to give a clear conception of the type of work being undertaken. The report is divided into a number of heads, as follows: 1. Educational. 2. Social and Economic. 3. Religious. 4. Special Work Undertaken by Typical Cities. 5. Work of the Young Men's Christian Association in Local Cities. 6. Statement of the Interracial Commission of the War Work Council. I. Educational. The Foundations working for the advancement of training among colored people are by far the finest example of team work and cooperation to be found in any field of work. The General Education Board is helping a few institutions of higher learning and furnishing funds for State Supervisors of Rural Negro Schools. The Slater Board is concentrating on...
